Good morning Mr. Jordan,

Am I still being reviewed by your commission?

I have been making contributions to various politicians for the last twenty something years and have never had this happen before. Receiving this MUR thing has made my life stressful for the last week.

As I stated above, I am not the Director of Operations for STF.

Neither Scott Taylor, nor anyone associated with Scott Taylor, personally approached me for any campaign contributions. I saw one of his campaign signs on the side of a road, next to a sign for Randy Forbes. I googled Scott Taylor, found his website, and made a contribution using my personal bank account after reading about his background in the Navy (as I am retired Navy).

Do I need to hire a lawyer? Hopefully not as I do not have money laying around.

Has your office approached this Lisa Clarkson about her providing incorrect information?

I will accept this as your response and include it in the file. You may add any additional information you feel is relevant to the matter as well.

Thanks,

Good morning Mr. Jordan,

The subject MUR has me listed as the Director of Operations for Systems Technology Forum.

While I do work for STF, I am not the Director of Operations.

I am a low level hourly employee of STF working as a contractor at a government facility.

What do I need to do to correct this issue?

v/r,
Steve Baggs
